THE CHICAGO IS BACK IN PORT

The flagship Chicago of the Pacific squadron has returned to Honolulu from her Hilo trip. She came in about noon yesterday, leaving Hilo at three o'clock Friday and arriving at Kaula, Molokai, at six-thirty, which latter place was left an hour later, after putting off the Admiral's hunting party.

At Hilo a party went to the Volcano, some of them to stay two days and some for a shorter period. Among the party going to the Volcano were: Admiral Goodrich, Flag Lieut. Sargeant, Pay Inspector Hicks, Chaplain Stone, Capt. Hopkins, U. S. M. C., Asst. Surgeon Roen, Lieut. Mitchell, Lieut. Schoenfeld, Lieut. Eckhardt and Midshipman Pond.

Some of the officers took a drive around the city of Hilo and environs. Dr. Rossiter, of the local Naval station, was with the party as also were Mrs. Capt. Lyon, Mrs. Admiral Goodrich and Mrs. Rossiter, who came by the Kinai.

The party who left the Chicago at Kaula for a hunting trip was well-armed. They did not know what they were going to shoot so they took all sorts of arms. In fact almost a motley aggregation, according to Ensign Campbell. The party divided into two sections, one to hunt birds and the other to look for deer. The hunting "detail" consisted of the Admiral, Pay Inspector Hicks, the Fleet Engineer, the Flag Lieutenant, Lieut. Schoenfeld, Midshipman Swanson and Midshipman Pond.

The Iroquois will bring the party back this morning. They will sleep on board the Iroquois, so that an early arrival is anticipated.

A FINE CHRISTMAS FOR KONA ORPHANAGE

The agent of the Kona Orphanage is in receipt of a letter acknowledging receipt of the following sums: $1500, $1500, $50, $20 and $10. Of the first three thousand, $2500 is to be used for building a boys' dormitory.

The agent also received yesterday morning a local contribution of $190 and sent up $275 more in cash for Christmas for the orphans in addition to the toys, clothing, shoes, etc., that were contributed.

POSTPONEMENT OF TRANSPORT DANCE AT MOANA HOTEL.

Owing to the lateness of arrival of the U. S. A. T. Buford the dance, in honor of Colonel Joseph N. Dorst and the officers and ladies of the 3rd Cavalry which was to have been held at the Moana last night, is postponed to Monday (Christmas) night. A general invitation is extended to the town folk and especially to the Admiral and staff, the commanders and officers of the Chicago, the naval transport Lawton, the transport Dix, to the auxiliary Lawton and to the captain and officers of the Restorer.

An elaborate Christmas menu has been prepared by Manager Hertsche and this together with music by the Moana Quintet during the dinner hours will insure a large attendance by society people both at dinner and dance.
